

MEYER SUBPENAS MORE CITY RECORDS

Officials Also Summoned to Give Pointers to Legislative Committee.

CLUES GIVEN BY CITIZENS

Berger to Ask Court to Punish Police Deputy Leach for Not Testifying.

Subpena servers of the Meyer legislative committee were busy yesterday looking up certain persons who have been asked to appear before subcommittees for examination to-morrow. Some of those summoned are connected with the city administration and have been asked to produce records. Those records will be impounded.

Chairman Meyer was out of town, but Leonard M. Wallstein and Samuel A.
Berger, associate counsel, spent some time going over records already in hand.
They have received the usual number of communications, anonymous and otherwise, all of which are being carefully perused for possible information or clues of value.

Mr. Berger expects to apply to-morrow for an order compelling Deputy Police Commissioner Leach to show cause why he should not be punished for refusing to testify.

David Hirschfeld, Mayor Hylan's Commissioner of Accounts, in a long statement declared the Meyer committee wanted to examine witnesses and records in private so it could suppress "all the big things this administration has accomplished." He further asserted that the committee was appointed "to get Mayor Hylan and thus help elect a candidate, telephone, gas and electric light price boosting Mayor." He could not understand, Hirschfeld said, why the Meyer committee should want the records in regard to reinstatements on the police force in the Hylan administration.

THREE WIVES GET ALIMONY.

Two Are Granted Counsel Fees in Divorce Actions.

Supreme Court Justice John M. Tierney granted yesterday alimony of $75 a week and $750 counsel fees to Mrs.
Fannie Licker to enable her to defend a divorce action brought by Barnett Licker, president of the Atlas Can Company. She alleged that since he amassed $200,000, with her assistance, he has neglected her for other women and denied the allegation on which he bases his action.

Justice Tierney granted alimony of $500 a week and $1,500 counsel fees to Mrs. Gustaf Nager of 233 Port Washington avenue, in a divorce action from Isidore Nager, cloak and suit manufacturer, of 166 Madison avenue, and alimony of $80 a week to Mrs. Esther Slemmon, who is suing Carl G. Slemmon, musician, for divorce.

THERE ARE THOUSANDS OF DELI-CATELY MODELED PUMPS STILL TO BE HAD

$10

FORMERLY $11.50, $13.50, $14.50 AND $16.50

It is suggested that the opportunities for selection will be practically as plentiful tomorrow and during the week as they were last week. The tremendous stock of one and two strap pumps has naturally decreased, for the event has been quite beyond the usual in every particular, but even the most discriminating women can still secure the size, combination, heel, color and leather she desires.

It was unfortunate for the shops that the pumps were late in arriving.
If left to the usual methods of selling they would have intruded on the White Season which begins Decoration Day. However, this Ten-Dollar event has been the means of familiarizing hundreds of visitors with the I. Miller standard of design and quality.
